

Cottoneyed Joe's Snowcone Stand

Blog #4

Cottoneyed Joe's Snowcone Stand was my first job. Before I turned 16, I had done some babysitting for my parents' friends, but as soon as I turned 16, I was ready to go out and get a job. I had applied a few places, but I wasn't that interested in them. One of my friends was a manager at Cottoneyed Joe's, and she had let me know they had some spots open. Working here was a lot of fun, and I learned a lot.
