

Lawson Court Apartments

Blog #3

Lawson Court Apartments at the University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma is the first place I lived on my own. After I graduated high school, I went on to attend the University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma. USAO did offer traditional dorms, however, I thought Lawson Court would suit me better. Here you have your own bedroom and only share a bathroom with one other roommate. These apartments also have a kitchen and living room that is shared among four people. I enjoyed my time here, and I made a lot of memories. I really liked the feeling of being on my own and having my own space.
