

Festivities Event Center

Blog #2

Festivities Event Center in El Reno used to be a post office. We had attended a wedding here a couple years prior to when we began to plan our own wedding, and we thought it was beautiful. When we began searching for a place to have our wedding, I had gone through many different venues throughout the Oklahoma City metro area, and I could not seem to find a place that would be the perfect fit. Then, I stumbled upon Festivities Event Center and remembered going to a wedding there and how beautiful it was. We went to take a tour with my parents to get more information and look around the inside, and we all knew it would be perfect. This place holds many beautiful memories from our wedding day and will always have a special place in my heart.
